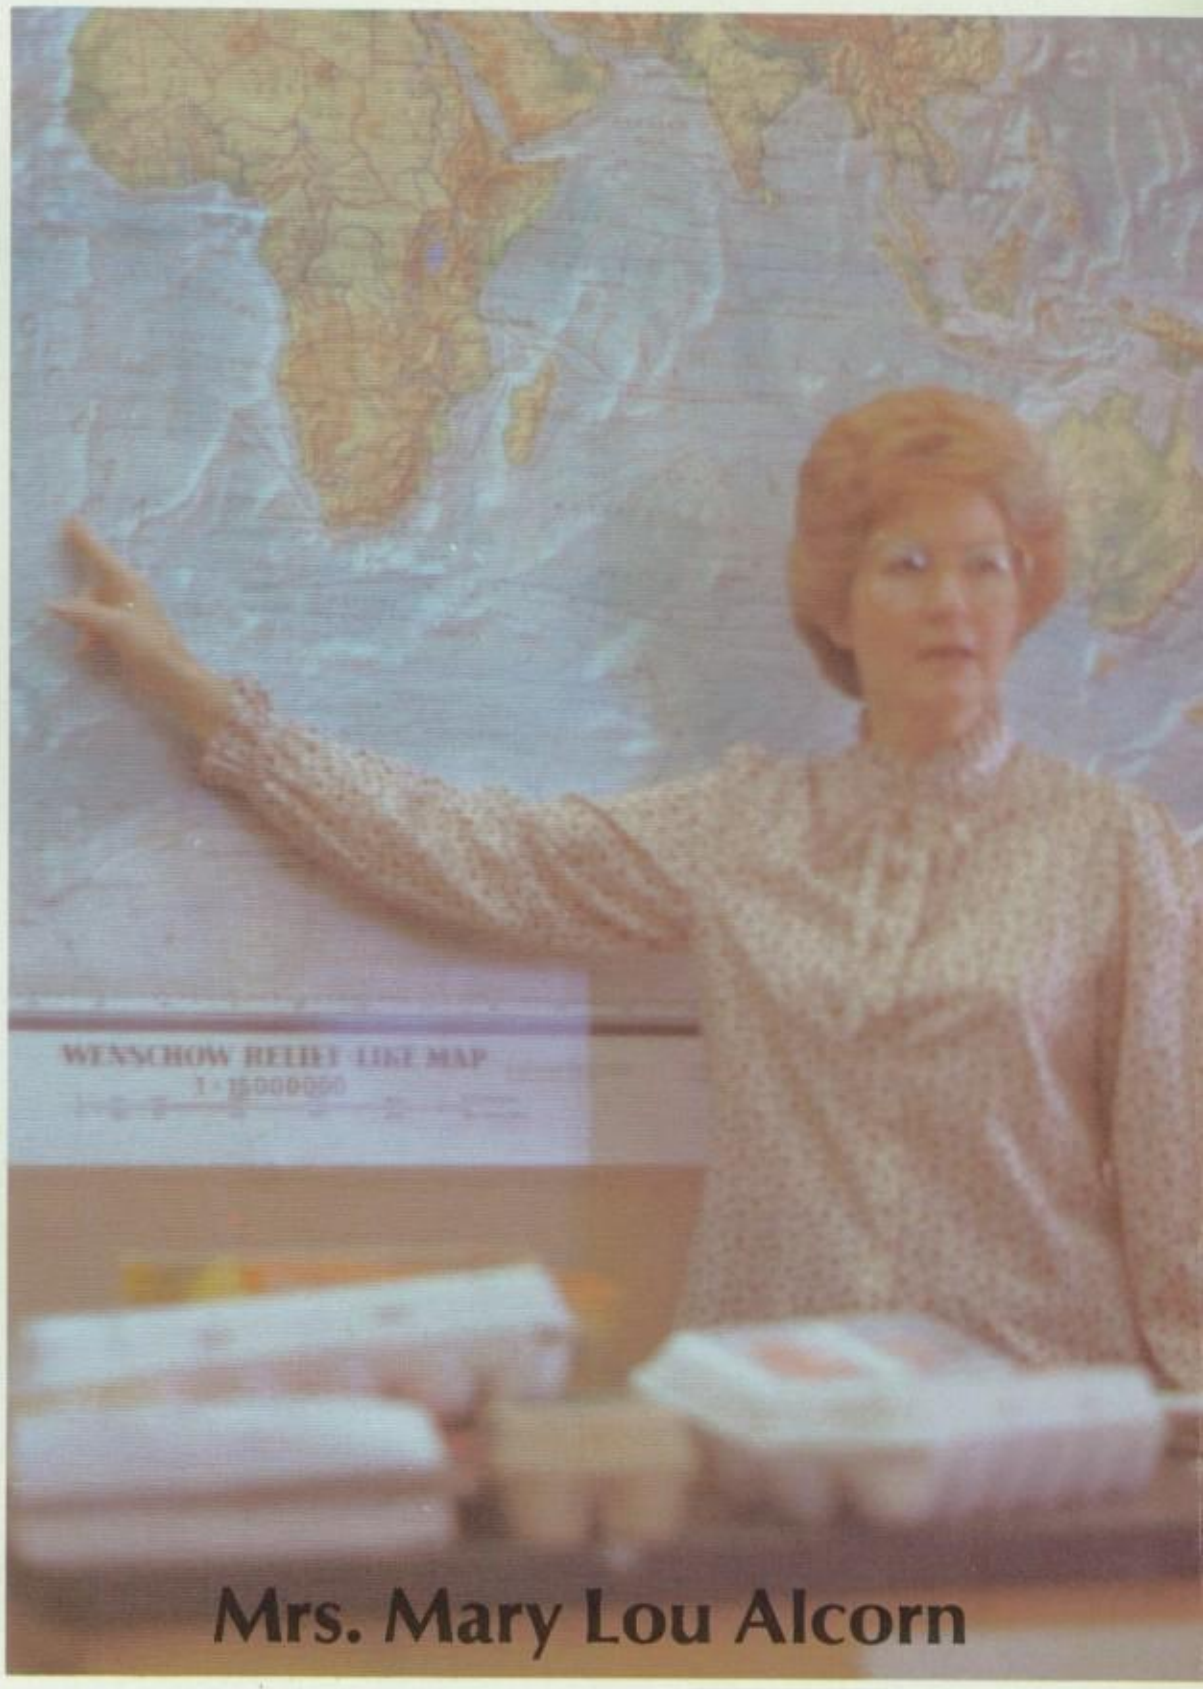
Looking Back at Two



Mrs. Mary Lou Alcorn

Mrs. Mary Lou Alcorn has been teaching at Austin for 11 years. While she has a degree from U.T.E.P., her Geology studies were done at New Mexico State, University of Houston, and Colorado State.

Geology was her hobby before it became her career. In the summer she enjoys visiting ghost town mining camps and Indian Camps, and she likes to catalogue Indian artifacts and their uses.

When she can't take the time to visit other places, she enjoys working in her garden and tries to have something blooming constantly.

Mrs. Alcorn has one bit of advice she likes to pass to her students: "Do your very best work because it's later than you think."

Who Made It Worthwhile

Mrs. Miriam Alvarado

In 1978 Miriam Alvarado graduated from Austin High School. After graduating, Mrs. Alvarado went to work for the El Paso Independent School District. She worked at Huey Elementary for a year, and then returned to her Alma Mater in 1981 to fill in the position of Business Manager.

In the two years since then, Mrs. Alvarado has gained a reputation of calm efficiency, and an eagerness to help any individual or organization that needs her help with money matters.

Mrs. Alvarado was born in Mexico City, and moved with her family to El Paso when she was 10. She likes to swim, to crochet, and to listen to music when she can find time. She enjoys seeing students at pep assemblies and being a part of Austin again.

Tomorrow's Leaders Today

The Senior Class Officers held their first meeting with the Senior Class September 9, 1982. During the meeting, all coming events pertaining to the Seniors were announced, and the Senior Executive Committee was elected.

The purpose of the Executive Committee is to help out the Senior Class Officers with decisions about graduation announcements, the senior prom, senior T-shirts, senior follies, etc.

Both the officers and the executive committee met throughout the year four times a month.

"It is an honor to be the head of the committee because you're there representing your senior class," said Juan. "Some decisions were real tough for all the members of the committee because they had to come to decisions that the majority of the seniors would like," he concluded.

Senior Class Favorites

Graduation is what we, the Mighty class of '83, have been working toward, waiting for, and dreaming about for the past four years. Now that "The Day" is so near, many of us have found that we would not mind waiting a little longer.

Throughout the years spent here we have accumulated many memories – most of which we will treasure long after we have gone our separate ways. Memories of . . .

• cheering ourselves hoarse at pep-rallies . . .

• partaking in the unity and spirit that made Homecoming a success . . .

• meeting that special person you daydreamed about for half the semester and finding out that you were made for each other . . .

• falling asleep in that BORING class and waking up to find everyone looking at you as the teacher waited for the answer to some unknown question . . .

• hassling the teachers, who try so hard to instill some of their knowledge in us and who really do care . . .

• putting off doing that research paper – which you had a month to do – 'til two days before you were supposed to turn it in . . .

• taking the day off from school (better known as ditching) to go party and have a good time . . .

• getting busted for ditching and having to face the well-known wrath of Mr. Elwood . . .

• staying up all night baking cheap cookies for the club bake sale the next day . . .

• treasuring the feelings of success after meeting that impossible deadline . . .

• cheering the football team on to victory, or feeling the disappointment of defeat . . .

• actually studying for that impossible Trig exam – and passing!

• dancing the night away at A-in-A with that special someone, wishing it could go on forever . . .

• letting go and getting rowdy on the Senior Trip to Six Flags . . .

• making friends that will last us a lifetime . . .

• Our years spent here have prepared us to accept the responsibilities and challenges that lie ahead. While it may not be an easy thing to do, it is time for us to move on to new and different experiences, but we will always have our high school memories tucked away in the recesses of our minds, patiently waiting to re-emerge whenever we feel like LOOKING BACK AT OUR YEARS AT AUSTIN.

Perhaps the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do, when it ought to be done whether you like it or not; it is the first lesson that ought to be learned; and however early a man's training begins, it is probably the last lesson that he learns thoroughly.

Outstanding-Ex Inspires Panthers to Keep "CLAW"

Seventeen years ago, he roamed the halls of Austin High School . . . today he is living his lifelong dream — that of becoming a doctor.

Dr. Jeff M. Ekery, this year's Outstanding Ex-student, is an optometrist.

"It feels great!" he said upon being informed of the honor, "I am surprised and really honored."

The Outstanding Ex has lived in El Paso all his life and says he dreamt of being a doctor for as long as he can remember. As a child Dr. Ekery attended Houston Elementary then started eighth grade here. His years at Austin may have paved the way to his career. He was an outstanding scholar and was very active in extra-curricular activities. He served on Student Council for four years. He was a member of Senior National Honor Society and also participated in the Club Panel, which coordinated functions of school clubs. He was also active in the Masque and Gavel Club.

After recalling his own high school days, the thirty-four year old's advice to Austinites is: "Just hang in there. Make the best of it that you can. Have fun because college is very different. Be active and join clubs — do your best at school."

The Bachelor, who has been practicing since 1973, attended the University of Texas at El Paso but left to continue his studies at the University of Texas at Austin. He went on to the University of Texas at Houston where he finally obtained his medical degree. While at the University of Houston he was on the Dean's Council and served as Student Association President of the Optometry School.

Since joining the profession, Dr. Ekery participated in the American Optometric Association and is past president in the local chapter of the Texas Optometric Association. Besides being chairman of the Community College for Opthalmic Technicians he also participates and has participated in many community organizations. A few of these include the Chamber of Commerce, El Paso Women's Employment and Education.

To the professional, who still is a Panther at heart, Homecoming meant "having fun and visiting your old high school, going to the football game and fighting for the claw."

Thus during Homecoming, one of the most avid Austin fans was the Outstanding Ex-student, Dr. Jeff M. Ekery, cheering the Panthers on to victory since 1965.

Twenty-five of Austin's most attractive girls competed for the title of "Most Beautiful" Saturday, Jan. 22, at 7:30 p.m. in the Senior Gym. After two hours of the "Carnival of Fun" (this year's theme), senior Cheryl Dyer, a blue-eyed redhead, was declared the winner by five judges who based their decision on her natural beauty.

Flrst runner-up was Kathy Malone (12) followed by Angie Elloreaga (12), Lucy Alvarez (10), Laura Padilla (12), and Carmen Gomez(11). Other participants included seniors Laura Hajjar, Loralee Van Eck, Lorena Saldivar, Bea Quintanilla, Angelica Ochoa, Miriam Lucero; juniors Kathy Aguirre, Lori Andrade, Jackie Flores, Carmen Gomes, Patti Lerma, Essie Senn, Sarah Snell, Tina Robertson, Andrea Lucero, and Lisa Martinez; sophomores Amy Phillips and Patsy McKay; and freshman Becky Maldonado.

While the entertainment was in progress, the judges were busy tallying scores. Carol Barasch, news broadcaster for KDBC, and Donna Marie Carroll, Miss Black El Paso, were two of the judges. The other were Felipa Garcia, KTSM news broadcaster, Kirista Lutz, Miss El Paso, and Robert Villa, president of Physique Southwest Body Builders Championships.

The MC's, seniors Laura Lozano and Matt Ellis, kept the show running smoothly while the formally attired escorts — Alfonso Campos, David Hernandez, Steve Lujan, Carlos Martinez, and Jaime Morales — added color to the event.

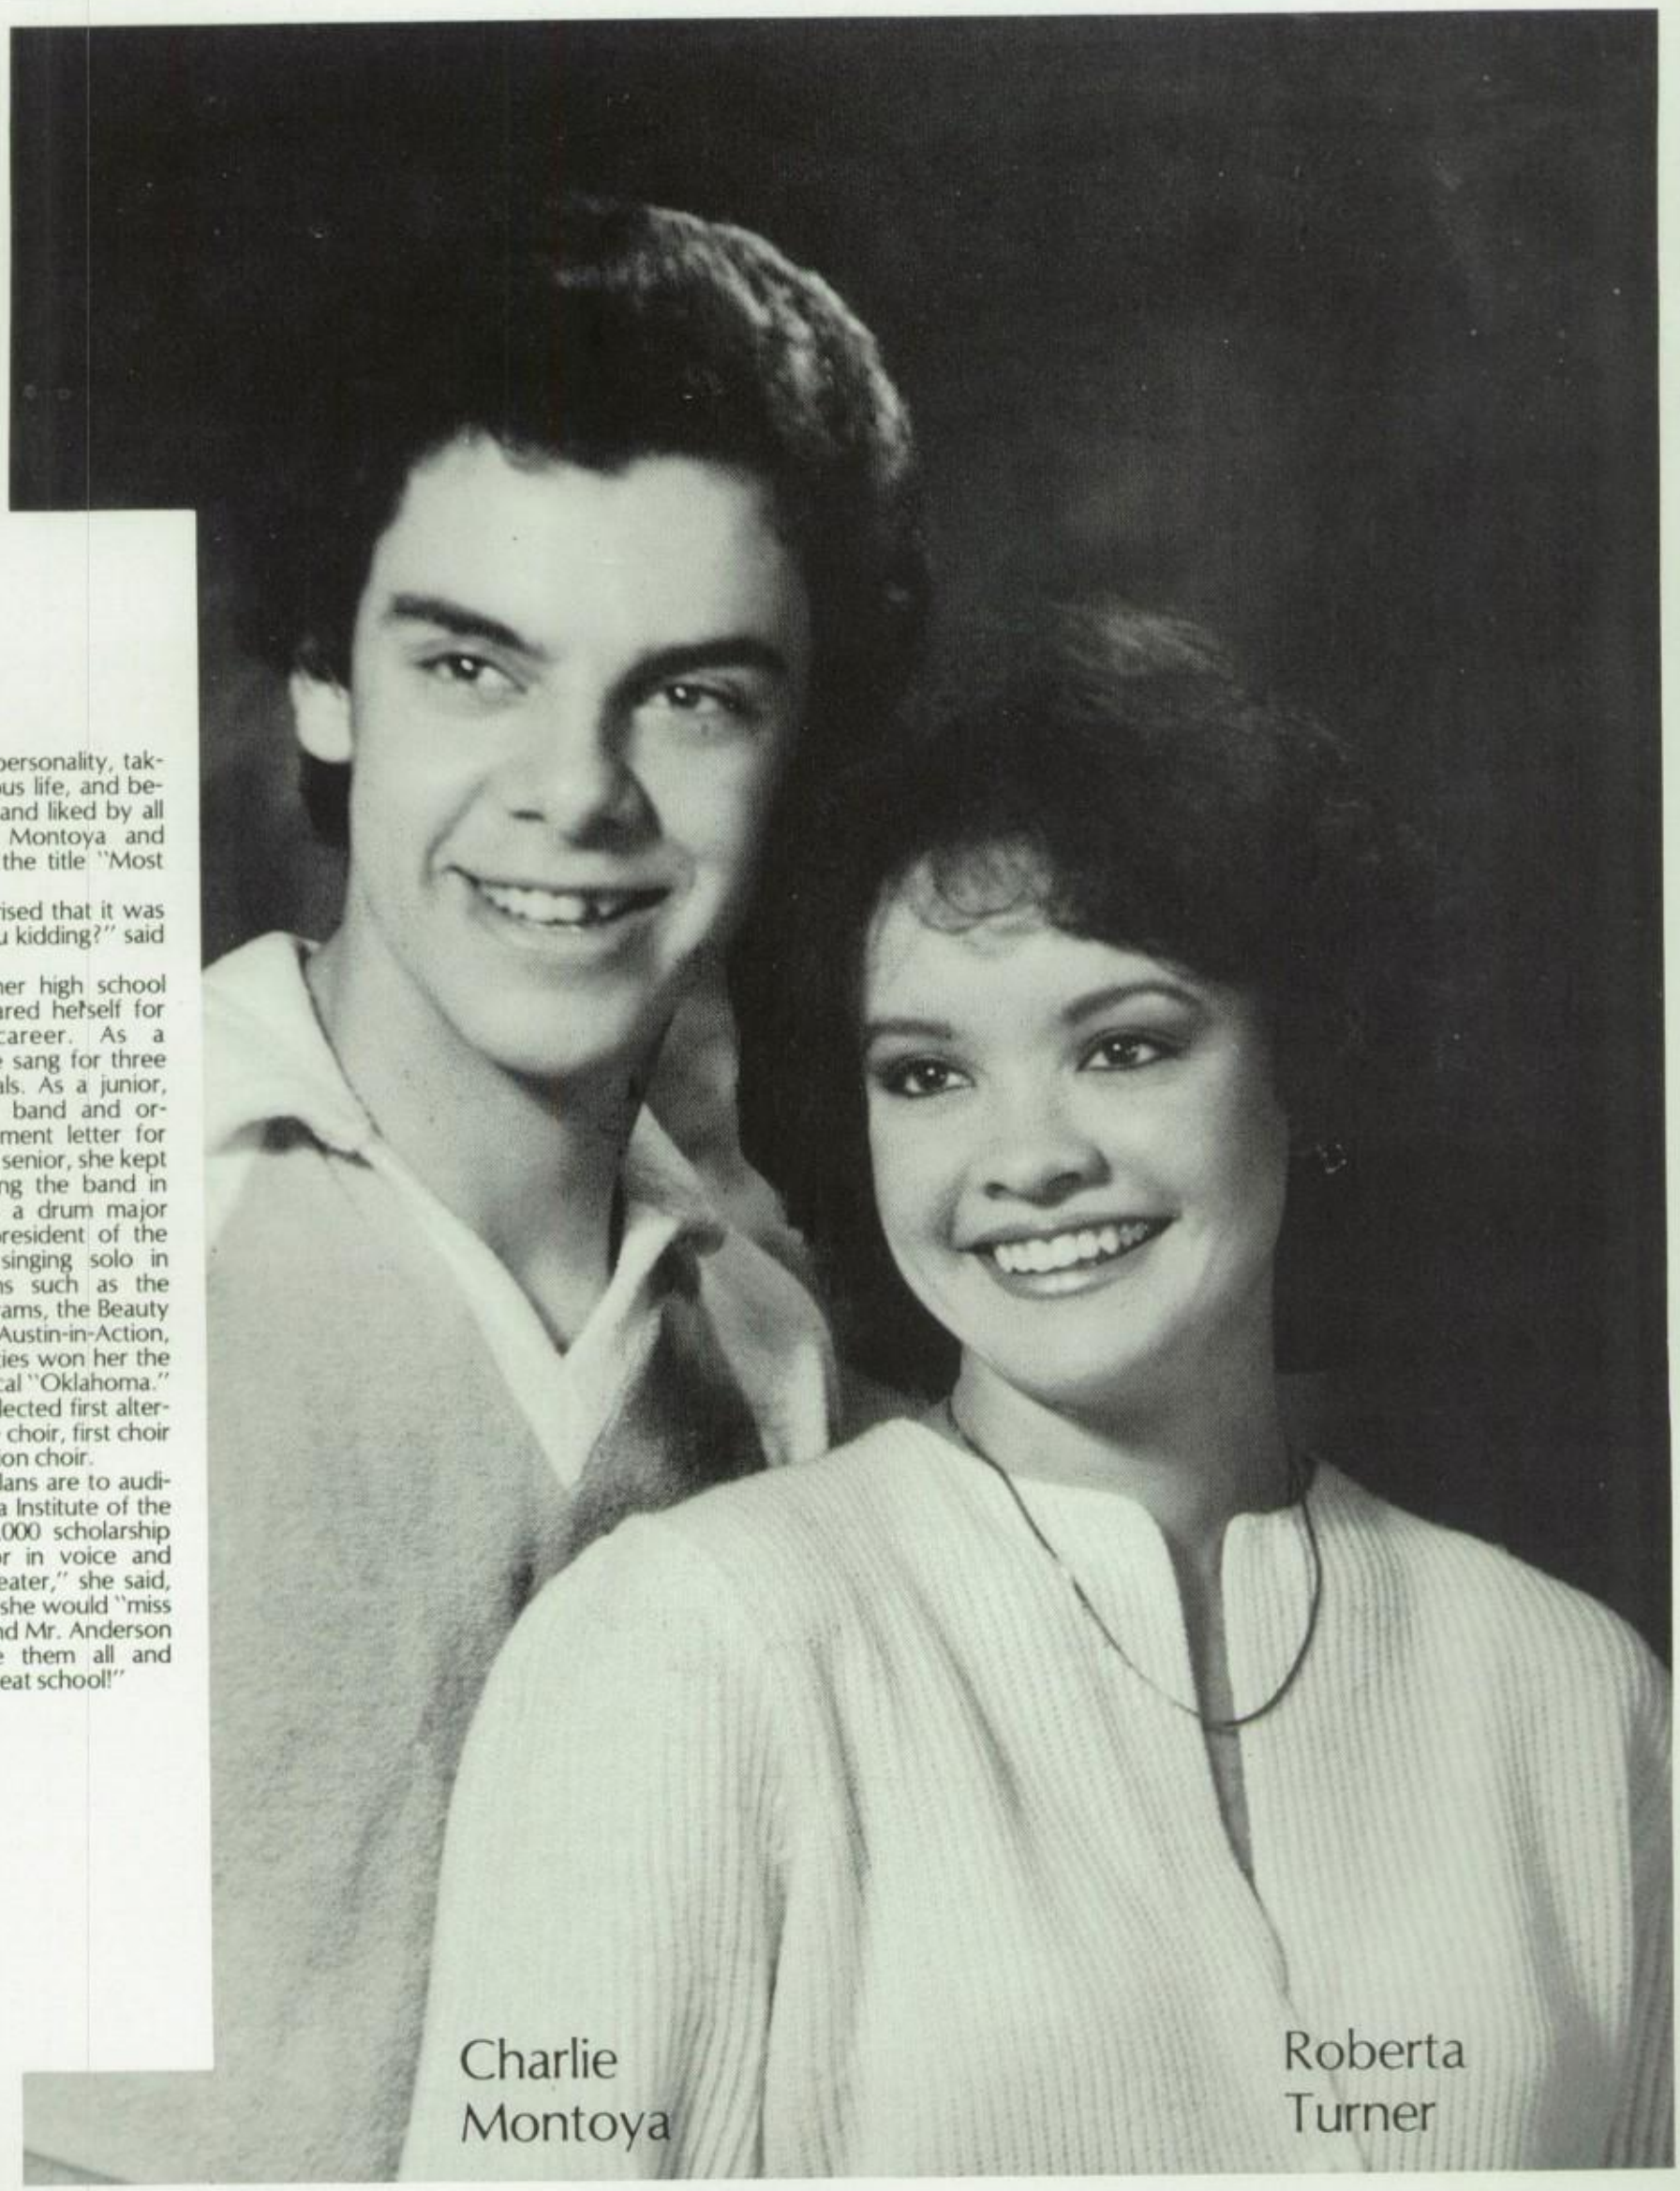
Most Popular



Charlie Montoya

Roberta Turner

An outgoing personality, taking part in campus life, and being well-known and liked by all earned Charlie Montoya and Roberta Turner the title "Most Popular."

"I was surprised that it was me. Like, are you kidding?" said Roberta.

Throughout her high school years she prepared herself for her singing career. As a sophomore, she sang for three local commercials. As a junior, she received a band and orchestra achievement letter for her efforts. As a senior, she kept busy by directing the band in her capacity as a drum major and was vice-president of the choir. Besides singing solo in school functions such as the Christmas programs, the Beauty Pageants, and Austin-in-Action, her singing abilities won her the lead in the musical "Oklahoma." She also was selected first alternate for all-state choir, first choir area, and all region choir.

"My future plans are to audition at California Institute of the Arts for a $10,000 scholarship and then major in voice and later musical theater," she said, concluding that she would "miss all my friends and Mr. Anderson because I love them all and especially my great school!"

All Austin

The honor that most seniors hoped for was awarded to two top seniors, Maria Halstead and Charlie Montoya, by the Austin Faculty.

Aside from being a Youth Optimist award recipient and a Rotary Youth Winner, Charlie also was the students' choice for "Most Popular."

His high school years were very active. He served on Student Council four years and on Teen Involvement for three years. Charlie also was a representative to Boys' State besides being elected "Who's Who Among American High School Students." Other clubs he participated in were the Science and Engineering Club, the Senior Executive Committee, and the Student Communications Committee. Although he lettered academically and was a member of various honor societies, he still thought that his grades could have been better. "I think I did much better my first three years than I am doing so far this year," he said.

With all these activities to keep him busy, Charlie always made time for sports. He played basketball throughout school, many times making the winning baskets. In his junior year he was chosen All-district player and was varsity co-captain.

In the future Charlie plans on attending college to "seek an undergraduate degree in engineering and perhaps go on to Med. School."

Maria, like Charlie, was very enthusiastic about receiving the title of All Austin. "I was elated and honored, I thank the faculty of Austin High school," she said. During her years here, Maria has participated in the Science and Engineering Club, the Spanish Honor Society, and Senior National Honor Society.

The 17-year-old, whose favorite classes were math and science, received three letters for academic achievement during her years here. In the future Maria hopes to graduate from medical school. "After internship and residency, I plan to either move to Israel and humbly live on a Kibbutz, or settle in Brooklyn and become filthy rich by ripping off Medicare," she said. Maria relates that what she will miss most about Austin is the teachers. "Teachers are what makes this a great school."

Every year each department is given the opportunity to select one individual who excels academically, exhibits proper citizenship standards, and meets the requirements of that department.

There was one student selected for most departments. In some cases there were two with the same qualifications. The individuals chosen ranged in classifications. Congratulations are extended to these outstanding students who did an outstanding job within their fields.

Last year's Scholastic Award Winners received a jacket or a sweater with a letter based on their grade point averages. These students worked diligently to remain the top five in their class. The seniors were selected according to a cumulative grade point average of their four years of high school.

D.A.R. Recipient

Matthew Ellis

This year Matt Ellis was recognized by the Daughters of the American Revolution as an outstanding scholar. Every year the D.A.R. honors one student from each high school. After much paper work and writing an essay, each individual competed statewide. Of all the participants in Texas, Matt placed fifth.

Foreign Exchange Students

Camilla Rosenberg

Seija Tertlula

Every year Austinites welcome foreign exchange students to complete one of their high school years. Camilla Rosenberg and Seija Tertlula. Camilla, a 16-year old native Swede, participated on the junior varsity and on the track team. She plans on returning to Sweden to attend school and to specialize in volleyball.

Sejia, a 17-year old, also was a member of the track team. In Finland she participated in many sports. She plans to someday be a veterinarian. Both Seija and Camilla added an extra touch to the school by being members of this year's Student Council.

Of all the good things that Austin has, the Junior Honor Scoiety members were the pick of the crop of the Junior class. They were exemplary students in their attitude and academic achievements.

The N.J.H.S. contributed and participated in service projects both in and out of school. They helped with Austin-in-Action and with different projects. Also, they supported sports by attending as a group with their devoted sponsor, Miss Carol Bordan.

One of their projects included collecting old toys, clothes and food stuffs, which they sponsored at Guardian Angel Mission for the poor and underprivileged in that neighborhood. Their induction of new members was held in the spring.

Student Council appreciated teachers during teachers week.

Chuy Sayoko Shimada and Ruth Ortiz help put posters up for pep assemblies.

In All We've Got Going . . .

Was the Student Council's theme this year. The 46 member organization had their hands full with Homecoming Activities, Austin-in-Action, dances, the Beauty Pageant, Pep-Rallies, and most importantly, with promoting school spirit.

Student Council members could be seen before school, during lunch, and after school working hard to finish posters or to meet committee deadlines. They met every Tuesday with Student Activities Director, Mrs. Toni Hurt and Council Officers.

Mrs. Hurt, who has been here for 11 years, worked even harder than the members. Beginning early in the morning and finishing in the afternoon, she dedicated herself to helping Student Council and other student interests. She also played a very important part in other clubs and organizations when it came time for scheduling meetings and fund-raising events.

Student Council — leaders in spirit and pride — continue to make Austin one of the top schools in the Sun-City.

Teen involvement students, who range from sophomores to seniors, weren't just concerned about earning a credit, but also were concerned about helping elementary students to be more aware of themselves and their surroundings. They traveled once a month to different schools around the Austin area and talked about subjects such as Drug Abuse, Peer Pressure, education, and decision-making in life. Part of their secret to getting along with the kids was "that they talked to them on their own level, therefore, they understood easily," said member Lourdes Jacquez.

Students interested in joining Teen Involvement should be willing to work with kids and should fill out an application with Miss Dow, counselor and Teen Involvment sponsor.

Youth Optimists

Another awaited honor delegated every year are the Youth Optimist Awards. This award is based upon nominations from Austin's counselors and is submitted to the Alta Vista Optimist Club. A boy and a girl from each classification are selected based upon their citizenship.

This was a special year for Austin because senior Charlie Montoya was selected from among all of the Youth Optimist in the city and received city-wide recognition.

This year's winners were: freshmen Juana Prieto and Paula Amaya; sophomores Peggy Herrald and Jaime Luna; juniors Linda Ozuna and Rex Novak; seniors Joanne Renteria and Matt Ellis.

Congratulations to all winners.

The 38-member organization met every three weeks during lunch to teach the girls skills that would prepare them for the business world. Membership requirements were that a student be enrolled in Vocational Office Education Pre-Employment Lab and be willing to devote time and effort to the organizations."

"OEA encourages individual and group iniative and competition," said Mrs. Starkey. She also said that "it helps to develop future leaders for office occupations."

Some of their fund raisers included taking inventory for El Paso businesses and the selling of stuffed animals. All of their money went toward the Annual Employer-Employee Banquet and to the area competition held at the El Paso Community College Trans Mountain Campus in February. They also attended the State Competition in San Antonio in March.

The Office Education Association Co-Operation program was sponsored by Mrs. Jessie Bassett. Members attended school half day and went to their office jobs after class. This was a very successful program since they earned a salary while receiving class credit.

Sponsor Mrs. Jessie Bassett said that the program "provided opportunities for the students to gain experience in the business world." They also held several projects to raise money to finance their trip to area and state competitions.

"Bridging the gap" is what Gamma Delta, a newly organized sign language club, is all about. This organization, which will try to "Bridge The Gap" between the deaf and the hearing, explained Kim Anderson, club president, is designed for those students interested in learning to better communicate with the hearing impaired.

Mrs. Angie Nava, Mrs. Carol Yarbrough and sophomore Lupe Lopez are credited with organizing the club.

Gamma Delta is not the first club of this type to be organized at Austin, Mrs. Yarbrough said, explaining that about four years ago, a similar club was formed, but had to disband because of financial problems.

Which club gives students a chance to work in the science and engineering fields? Of course, it's the Science and Engineering Club. This 18-member-club, which consists of sophomores, juniors, and seniors, met every two weeks during their lunch period to discuss their school beautification project and other projects which were in progress.

The membership requirements were that students be interested in science and engineering and be willing to work. Sponsor James Vincent said the "Students get to see real scientists and engineers at work." He added that "they also get a better understanding of what a career in science and engineering is all about."

The club had several field trips to U.T.E.P., Chevron Refinery, and attended science seminars and fairs. This year's officers were: President Matt Ellis, Vice-President Gus Hernandez, Treasurer Fernie Araguchi, Secretary Steve Ramirez, and Sgt. at Arms Maria Halsted.

The Speech and Drama Club came through with another year of successful performances. Among their achievements was the reproduction of the longest running Broadway musical of the 1940's, "Oklahoma," and the 1955 one-act play, "Bus Stop."

Besides their stage performances, the Speech and Drama Club, headed by instructor Jim Lawler, participated in many speech competitions and hosted the Lydia Stark Tournament.

The 1982-83 Choral Association consisted of three separate choirs. These were the Varsity Choir, Vocal Ensemble, and the Choralaires (an all girls chorus.)

During the year, the choir worked diligently preparing for each individual competition and for their special performances. This year's choir was especially honored in having Roberta Turner make All-State first alternate in Choir. Also, Mr. Robert Provencio, choir director, had his choir club help Mr. Lawler with the production and presentation of the famous musical "Oklahoma," which was a tremendous success. Mr. Giles assisted Mr. Provencio with the direction of the Christmas program during the last few days of his student training to help make the program a pleasant success.

H.E.R.O.'s Work

Home Economics Related Occupations

H.E.R.O. didn't necessarily work 9 to 5, but they were hard workers. H.E.R.O. members found jobs in food-related business rangingm from McDonald's to Safeway Stores. The purpose of the 32-member club was to "further develop skills needed for jobs and careers," said sponsor, Anne E. Richardson.

The club, open only to H.E.R.O. classes, also worked hard to raise money to pay for area and state meets, to attend youth leadership training seminars, and for the Employer-Employee Banquet, which was held in February. They also attended a Leadership Workshop in October, which was held at the Cattleman's Steak House.

H.E.R.O.'s training in money management, time, and energy was beneficial for the working students. The members also participated in interclub and school activities, such as training with Co-Op clubs and selling book covers.

This year's officers were: President Arthur Seelig, 1st Vice-President Juan Herrera, 2nd Vice-President Carlos Martinez, Secretary-Treasurer Dominic Prieto, Reporter John Gower, Historian Shirley Edwards, Class Representatives Martin Rivas, Becky Duran, and George Zermeno.

Overall, H.E.R.O. was succesful in contributing a great deal to the students' education as well as their employers and school.

Making her daily paper doll cutouts. (Sylvia Juarez)

This year the Round Up Staff really worked hard to put together one of the best yearbooks at Austin High. Everyone worked long hours and many weekends. Although there were many new members on the staff this year, they managed to accomplish this task — on time!!

Mrs. De La Rosa, yearbook advisor, helped everyone get started (and finish!). Although this is only her second year in journalism, she helped make this yearbook a success.

It is hoped that all Panthers will enjoy experiencing it as much as we did making it.

Flag Captains: Lupe Guerrero and Dolores Salomon Maintain Panther Pride.

Unlike what many people may think being a flag girl is not all fun and frills. It involves many responsibilities. The main one being attending practices five days a week and being on time in the morning, as well as in the afternoon. One very important thing for the girls was showing pride every time they picked up a flag pole to march. "The best part about being a flag girl is bringing back that number one rating from a contest and knowing that you helped get the rating," said flag girl director Betty Terrazas, who is a U.T. El Paso student.

Phi-Chi '82-'83

For the second year in a row, Phi-Chi continued the tradition of lighting and whitewashing the 'A'. The club's memebership grew from 50 to 85 members in a short period of time, with the help of all of it's members, was able to light the 'A' for every home football game.

Membership requirements were that a student be officially enrolled at Austin and that they be willing to show Panther Pride. The club held bake sales, car washes and a Jelly Bean Guess, to raise money to light the 'A'. Some of the goals of Phi-Chi included learning to work together, learning responsibility, and to show spirit and pride.

When asked about how this club compares with others, sponsor Art Corral stated: "We are individuals and our success in helping the school, teachers, and students is a reward in itself." He added that "If we accomplish these things we are NUMBER ONE and we don't have to be compared to others."

Phi-Chi met once a week with sponsors Coach Corral and Leslie Steinman. This year's club officers were: president Sue-Wee Bonilla, Vice-President Cyndy Alatorre, Secretary Mike Romero, Treasurer Robin Shapiro, Historian Gloria Auspurger, Publicity Manager Laura Wiggs, Assit, Publicity Managers Tom Huey and Lisa Lesser, Chaplin Beverly Mowad, Phone Committee Deanna Nasser, and Parlamentarian Eddie Marroguin.

Although, it was only revived 2 years ago, Phi-Chi has been in existence – since the beginning of Austin High and will continue to maintain and light the 'A' to show El Paso that Austin is still #1 in spirit, pride and tradition.

Distributive Education Clubs of America

The Distributive Education Clubs of America have kept up their tradition of helping students find part-time work while attending school. Headed by Mr. Adrian Madrigal, the 34-member club teaches the students appropriate duties of the open market scene including leadership and social and civic awareness. Members advance their knowledge of how a formal organization progresses not only with the working experience they receive but also through their participation in various contests during the year.

Audio Visual, a 25-member organization, played an important part in assisting teachers and students to attain a better education. "They were responsible for running A.V. equipment and keeping films and equipment in perfect condition," said sponsor, Mrs. Katy Lopez. She also stated that "they learn to become self-efficient, dependable, responsible and hard working."

The club, which held meetings once a week, was run by: President Becky Duran, Vice-president Juan Gomez, Secretary Irma Rojas, Treasurer Nate Lopez, and Advisory Committer person Richard Simental. Several car washes and bake sales were held to raise money for a banquet, which was held at the end of the year. They also went on field trips to local T.V. and Radio Stations.

Even though the J.V. football team finished with a 4-3 district record and a 5-5 season record overall, Coach Rudy Wagner thought they had an "excellent season."

"Most of the players tried most of the time," he said, "however, some didn't try too hard. That's the reason we were 5 and 5."

When Coach Wagner was asked if his players won the games he expected they would win he said, "You never expect anything, at least I don't. I hope the players play well. If they do, the wins will take care of themselves." Coach Wagner concluded that the season could have been better with more effort from more people, but overall, it was a satisfactory season.

Panther Jae fights for needed yardage

Although the baby Panthers had a record of 4 wins and 4 loses, they were much better than their record showed.

"I thought we had a pretty good season." said Coach Mark Miller, explaining that the games we won were by large margins; the games we lost (except one) were not by more than 5 pts."

Their 4 loses were against very good teams such as Charles (who went undefeated this year) whom the baby Panthers lost 27 to 25, against Canyon Hills (who lost only 2 games) 19 to 13, and Bassett, which only lost one game.

The young Panthers accumulated 266 points in total offense and gave up only 96 points on defense. The baby Panthers also outscored their opponents 266 points to 96 points.

The girl's varsity volleyball team did not have the kind of season Coach Zebora Hemmitt hoped they would have, however, the volleyball team did finish with a 4-10 district record.

Austin's bright spots were Clara Cordova, Laura Wiggs, and Sandi Celarga, who were awarded All-District honorable mentions. "Clara's quickness was a definite asset to our team. She has the ability to play any position," said Coach Hemmitt. "She had one of the best serves in district."

Laura and Sandie were always a motiviating factor to the team. With their consistency they also were excellent backcourt players, said the Coach.

Although the Panthers had a disappointing season, Coach Hemmitt is looking forward to next year. "We are losing three girls – Rose Barba, Cyndy Alatorre, and Clara Cordova – to graduation. We have 7 girls returning, and I'm looking to junior varsity for some girls to roundout Varsity," She concluded.

Junior varsity volleyball may have not had a winning season, "but they did learn the importance of a good attitude and what skills are needed to be successful," said Coach Leslie Steinmann, adding that "these qualities usually produce a winning team."

The young Pantherettes went through a few rough spots and did not progress as well as Coach Steinmann thought they could have. "Inexperience always hurts a team, but the purpose of junior varsity is to give the experience to younger players so that they can move on to the varsity level," explained the Coach.

Becky Padilla (11), Diana Jimenez (10), Sandra Ramos (10), Christy Valadez (9), Pam Reid (11), Sonia Lopez (9) all gave 100% throughout the season.

Coach Steinmann added that a welcomed addition to the team was Camilla Rosenburg, a foreign exchange student from Sweden.

Although Austin didn't have an undefeated season, as a team the boys spotlighted their intensity on the court with their fancy court moves and straight ahead hoopshooting.

Throughout the season, the team maintained Panther pressure on their opponents, which allowed them to end with a good season. Most of the games they lost were toss-ups lost by a slim margin.

In describing this year's Lady Panthers Varsity Basketball team, Mrs. Marcia Patterson, their Coach, says "the team is very young and inexperienced but they work hard and never give up in a game, no matter what the score."

After losing all five last year's starters to graduation, this year has been one devoted to rebuilding the team. Only two players on this year's team were on last year's squad. The returnees were Beni Cogburn and Doris Reynolds. Also on the squad were Linda Ozuna, Michi Hebeker, Becky Padilla, Denise Bremby, Diana Jimenez, Cindy Hemmer, Laura Ruiz, Christy Valadez, and Sonia Lopez.

Sonia and Christy, both freshmen, rotated as starters and were doing very well at point guard. Diana Jimenez (10), worked her way up to a starting position as a forward. Denise Bremby (11), Doris Reynolds (1), and Becky Padilla (11) rotated in the two other forward spots. Beni Cogburn (12) filled the other guard position, with Michi Hebeker coming off the bench to fill in. Linda Ozuna (11) and Cindy Hemmer (10) were also able replacements at the guard position.

In December the team traveled to Amarillo to play in the Caprock Invitational. They beat Caprock in the opening round, but lost to Canyon (ranked 5th in Texas) in the semi-final round, coming in 4th in the tournament.

Bertha Martinez calls the next play.

This year has been a learning experience for the girls' J.V. basketball team, said Miss Leslie Steinman, team coach. "So far our season has been full of ups and downs . . . we took second place in the Bowie J.V. Tournement, but lost to Hanks in triple overtime," she explained.

The girls worked on improving their field goal and free throw percentage. "Our strength lies in our ability to play tough, aggressive defense," Miss Steinman said.

This year's team consisted of guards, Bertha Martinez, Olga Navarro, Lisa Salazar, Hilda Contreras, Yvette Lopez, and Pauline Herrera; Forwards Pam Reid, Lorena Alcala, and Alicia Gonzalez; and Alma Sanches played center.

"I don't like to single out any player as being best. There are no stars on my team, just a super team," she said, adding that their assets were quickness, speed, ability to anticipate and "the desire to be the best we can be." The coach concluded that "this has been one of the most enjoyable seasons I've had. This is truly a great bunch of girls!"

Bertha Martinez gets caught in a trap and prepares to pass to Olga Navaro (#23).

Lily Morales goes the extra mile.

The 1982-83 Varsity Cross Country team was one of the best Austin has ever had and the number two team in state. Coach Rick McLaughlin came to Austin to boost the Cross Country team from mediocrity to a genuine winner. The Varsity Cross Country team won the District championship and sent their qualifying runners on to Regionals and then to state. Senior Joe Hernandez, who won first place in district, with a record time of 14:34 placed second in Regionals and Fifth in state. Another Senior, Jaime Fraire, placed fifth in district and Regionals, and sixth in state. While junior Aaron Martinez placed sixth in district and regionals, and fifteenth in state. Ralph Gay, senior, placed seventh in district, eighth in regional and twenty-eighth in state. Six girls qualified for the state meet. These juniors: Letty Altamirano, Becky Drees, and Beth Drees; Sophomores: Beth Heras and Lily Morales; and Freshman Gina Lara. Beth Drees set a course record for two miles of 12 minutes and 52 seconds at the Coronado Invitational in the open race. Beth Drees and Becky Drees ran eighth and ninth respectively at the district championship in a fine time of 12 minutes and 10 seconds for two miles.

Beau and Sweetheart Frank Gutierrez and Joanne Renteria

Austin's 1982-83 tennis was a young team consisting of many sophomores, some whom barely began their second semester of tennis. However, Coach Art Corral described this year's team as "Hard Workers." The only returning varsity players were Frank Gutierrez ranked number two, and Joanne Renteria ranked number three.

In the Round Robin Tournament, the boys came in fourth place while the girls captured a fifth. Coronado High School provided the most competition for the young tennis team.

I'm gonna kill that sucker. – Jacquie Ostrowidski

Well, Tom,

I wouldve pictured you for a senior! Glad you're gonna be with us next year... we need all the loonys we can get! You know as well as do what a bright, ~~thorough~~ terrific (is that correct?) and crazy person you are. So lets ~~skip~~ (I thought I knew how to write) skip the fools and get to the lies (not really). You better have a great summer so we can return to make our Senior year our best ever! Take care. 'Hasta luego!

If you have ever wondered why so many children who are obviously not high school students attend Austin, there is a perfectly logical answer. These children are students of the Child Development Laboratory (CDL).

CDL, says director Vada Caruthers, is "a place where experiences and activities are provided for the total development of children so they can grow physically, mentally, socially, emotionally, and morally."

The tots are provided and kept busy with all kinds of play activities both inside and outside: art, music, and story times. The children sometimes go on field trips and sometimes they have resource people visit.

These activities are designed to help the children grow and develop to learn to get along with others, to be part of a group, and to learn to express themselves creatively and freely. It is hoped that the children will learn to listen and follow instructions, and to learn basic concepts about the meaning of words. The CDL director says that often this is where the children begin their knowledge about the world around them, and there they learn to respect others and their property and to value themselves as persons who are accepted and loved. The children who participate in the program must be 3 to 4 years old and must live in the El Paso Independent School District.

Mrs. Caruthers, who is now in her 18th year here, doesn't have to worry about handling all the kids by herself. She has two assistants, Mrs. Bomback and Miss Carrillo. She also has the high school students enrolled in Child Care to help do the chores such as preparing snacks, picking up toys, and taking the kids to the bathroom. Mrs. Caruthers says she enjoys teaching because she loves all the children.

Looking Back . . .

We've heard it said countless times, "Time flies." Indeed, 1982-83 flew like all the other years before it. And like other years, it brought its share of new fads, triumphs and tragedies.

We learned a new language called Valley Talk from rock singer Frank Zappa's daughter, Moon Unit. Everything was "fer sure," "like wow," "totally awesome," and everyone was "gagging on a spoon."

In the Hollywood scene, movie fans were deprived of some of their favorites. Natalie Wood drowned in a boating accident. John Belushi was found dead in a bungalow from what was believed to have been a cocaine overdose. After receiving honors for his final role in "On Golden Pond," Henry Fonda, 77, died of heart failure. Following Fonda's death Ingrid Bergman lost her fight against cancer.

However, a new life was brought to the world as England's Prince Charles and Princess Diana had a baby boy, a new heir to the British throne.

Boomboom Mancini killed Dou Ku Kim during the Welterweight Championship. Kim's mother donated his heart, "the best part of him," before he died, and later she committed suicide.

America's Independent Truckers went on strike against raised gasoline taxes.

The N.F.L. strike in professional football gave people the opportunity to do something other than watching television on Sundays.

E.T. captured the hearts of millions, who encouraged him to "phone home." Audiences saw more of Sylvester Stallone in "Rocky III" and in "First Blood," both box office hits.

The 11-year running series, M*A*S*H, came to an end.

A surprising decision was made by TIME Magazine to name the Computer Man of the Year.

Several cases of Tylenol poisoning set off a national panic causing a tighter security on all medications.

The arcades had their share of the spotlight as Pac-Man, Ms. Pac-Man, and even a baby Pac-Man became almost a national pastime.

In El Paso, Numbers, a teen age night club, became a regular hangout for many airband fans. Two popular Austin bands, who performed frequently for their devoted fans, were The Miller Girls and Mental Madness.

Many of these events affected us at Austin in different ways, however, high school life went on . . .

In times to come, we will be able to look back on the special moments this yearbook has captured, with pride, laughter, and perhaps a little sorrow. I would like to thank everyone on the Roundup Staff for the hard work they put into making this a great yearbook. I want to say a special thanks to Mrs. Dora De La Rosa, yearbook sponsor, for all of the extra hours and hard work she put into this yearbook. We love you, Mrs. D.! And, on behalf of the Round Up Staff, I would like to extend our appreciation to all those who contributed in so many ways. Without their assistance we could not have accomplished any of this!

Mrs. Miriam Alvarado, business agent — for helping us sell yearbooks, keeping our records straight, and for her constant support.

Lucy Alvarez — for doing all the artwork in the Yearbook on such short notice.

Mr. Anchondo and Staff — for always going out of their way to repair equipment for us, keeping our working area clean, and letting us in the school on Saturdays.

Austin Faculty, administration, staff, and sports and other organizations on campus — for cooperating and helping in our photo-taking and retaking efforts.

Mr. A. L. Cherry — our principal, for his support.

Mr. Don De Luane, our hardworking yearbook representative from Taylor Publishing Company — for being here when we needed him and for spending extra time with us.

The Graphics, Design, and Layout Class and members of the photojournalism class — who helped with the last section of the yearbook.

Mr. K. K. Kazin and the Fine Arts Studio Staff (especially Bertha Guerrero) — for producing such beautiful photos of our seniors, organizations, and feature personalities — and always meeting our deadlines!

Mrs. Mary Rodriguez — for keeping us informed as to who was where, when.

Looking back . . .

As another year comes to an end each of us will always be able to do what this yearbook attempted — to retain memories of a year gone from our lives. In years to come, we will be able to close our eyes and come back to Austin High School, to remember the people, events, and little incidents that made this year unforgettably unique.

While some of us may consider this time in our lives an "ending," for others it is a beginning. Maybe what Winston Churchill once said in a time of crisis still is applicable in all aspects of life.

"Now, this is not the end. It is not even the beginning of the end. But it is, perhaps, the end of the beginning."

Tom
You have been a Good Friend. Keep in touch throughout the years. If you ever need any help just let me know.
Mr. Buena Nelson

Tom
It's really been nice getting to know you in accounting. You're are a very nice & sweet person so don't ever change O.K.
